Synopsis of Legislative Proceedings.

SENATE, Jan. 24.

By consent—The following bills were introduced without previous notice:
By Graves—An Act to incorporate the city of Santa Barbara. It was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Bartlett—An Act to prevent extortion and unjust discrimination in the rates charged for transportation of freight and passengers on railroads and steamboats, and to punish the same. This is a bill recommended by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. It was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

THE NO FENCE LAW.

Assembly Bill No. 25—An Act to protect agriculture and to prevent the trespassing of animals upon private property in the counties of Fresno, Tulare, Kern, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo and Monterey, introduced by Ferguson, was taken up.

Edgerton moved to amend section 11 so as to make it read as follows:
Section 11. All Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed so far as the same apply to the territory embraced in the provisions of this Act; provided, that this repeal does not include or affect any Act or Acts requiring railroads to be fenced, and all such Acts shall remain in full force.

The amendment was adopted without debate.

Edgerton moved to amend section 12 so as to make the law go into effect in the counties of San Luis Obispo and Monterey on the 1st of July, 1874.

The amendment was adopted without debate.

Edgerton moved to amend by adding to section 12 "Provided that as to all lands or parcels of lands in the county of Fresno, situated west of the San Joaquin Valley Railroad and south of the San Joaquin river, and south of King's river, not cultivated, the Act shall not be in force until the 1st day of November, A. D. 1874."

After lengthy discussion the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Lindsey offered the following amendment:
To amend Section 12 by inserting after the words "Tulare Lake" in said section and upon all cultivated lands fenced or unfenced in said Tulare county. All lands plowed or sown within twelve months last past shall be deemed cultivated.

The bill was passed.

ASSEMBLY.

Swift presented the following report:

Mr. Speaker: The Committee on Corporations, in response to the resolution offered by the gentleman from San Diego, Mr. Bowers, and passed by the House on the 12th instant, calling for information concerning all complaints laid before the committee showing instances of malpractice on the part of the railroad management that have been made to the committee, in pursuance of an invitation extended to all having such complaints to make, by a former resolution of the House, beg leave to report as follows:

This committee has not been notified of the passage by the House of any resolution directing it to ask for or receive complaints of malpractice on the part of the railroad of its managers, nor is it aware that any of the members of that corporation belong to the medical profession, if that be the meaning to be placed upon the resolution of the 23d instant. If, however, it is intended to refer the resolution passed by the House on the 12th day of December, "Inviting publishers of newspapers and others to furnish this committee with any substantial facts or circumstances that might have regard to any discrimination in the charges on freights and fares by the railroad companies of this State," this committee respectfully reports to the House that the attention of the members of the committee has been called to many most aggravated instances of what, if true, are most unjust and oppressive discriminations in freight charges practiced upon citizens of this State by the railroad management, in most cases palpably intended to inflict upon them for running counter to railroad interests, especially on matters of independent political action, but that such communications have been in every instance of a confidential character, and in no case made public after the fact, for obvious reasons, a promise of the strictest secrecy. Your committee therefore respectfully submits to the House the impropriety, and, indeed, the flagrant injustice of calling upon us, or even permitting the committee to disclose the names of these unfortunate persons until such time as laws can be passed to protect them in their business and property rights from the anger of the railroad corporation now so powerful in this State. The committee feel that it is only just to the railroad management to say that they and the most of these oppressives have occurred at a period dating back in most cases, over a year ago, and that there is a marked improvement in that respect within the last few months. SWIFT, Chairman.

Mr. Higbie presented an important report on the State University, which, having been heretofore published by the HERALD, is omitted from this report.

FREIGHTS AND FARES.

The Speaker announced the special order for the consideration of Assembly Bill No. 2—An Act to regulate freights and fares on railroads in the State of California, and the question was declared to be upon the engrossment of the bill.

Mr. Meyers in the chair.

The question was on the amendment of Mr. Timin, allowing four cents per ton per mile to be charged in certain cases.

The Clerk read section 2, to which

Mr. Norton offered the following amendment: Amend section 2 by striking out the word "article" in line 9, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "freight," which amendment was adopted.

Various amendments were offered and voted down.

The Clerk read section 6, to which Mr. Ferguson offered the following amendment: Amend by adding the words "provided said loading or unloading is done at points where the company has regular stations."

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 55 to 17.

The Clerk read section 7, to which Mr. Norton offered the following amendment: Amend section 7 by striking out the word "bill," in line 1, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Act," which amendment was adopted.

The remaining sections of the bill were read, when the House adjourned till Monday.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

The Nevada Tribune, which has heretofore been issued semi-weekly, is to be converted into a daily.

George A. Hinsdale, formerly State Governor of Colorado, died recently in Pueblo, Col., and the People mourns all over him.

There is $155,547 in the Arizona Territory Treasury, and all indebtedness is paid. The revenue of 1873 has not yet been told in, and will amount to about $15,000, showing a nice little sum of cash above all liabilities.

A new style of smoking car was put in operation on the Central Pacific Railroad passenger trains last Friday. They are divided by a partition in the center, one part being for Chinese passengers and the other for whites who desire to smoke.

The Santa Cruz Narrow Gauge Company made a great tin of oil pans about its not employing, or allowing contractors with it to employ moon-eyed innocents. But they have arrived—only sixty in one batch—that's all. And what is more astonishing, they were landed in Santa Cruz by daylight.

During the past year the Onamia Smelting Works have been in a very flourishing condition, and have done a very large business; $1,000,000 in gold and silver coin value were shipped East, and 2,000 tons of 40-cent loads of refined lead. An average of seventy-five men have been employed throughout the year.

O. B. Powers, of Suisun, advertises his newspaper for sale, as he wants to engage in some other kind of business.

The people of Santa Clara county are taking steps toward the establishment of a jail factory. The enterprise promises well.

A man named Cane, in Oroville, has been held to bail in $5,000 for assault to commit murder on one Nicklow in an affray.

Twenty-five vessels, aggregating 30,000 tons, are in San Francisco, under engagements to carry to Europe a portion of the heavy wheat crop.

On Monday evening, January 10th, a man was killed in the Spring Valley Company's claim at Cherokee, Butte county, by a cave. He was a young man, twenty-four years of age, named John Pinkston, formerly of Yankee Hill.

REWARD FOR VASQUEZ.—On Saturday the Governor issued a proclamation offering a reward for Vasquez. It recites that whereas on the 26th of August, 1873, several murders were committed near Hollister by Tiburcio Vasquez and the gang by which he is surrounded, and although a large reward has been offered, he has continued with his men, to commit crimes and depredations in this State, therefore he offers a reward of $3,000 for the arrest of Tiburcio Vasquez, payable on delivery of the highwayman alive to the Sheriff of Monterey county. If during an attempt to arrest him he makes such resistance as to endanger the persons or lives of those arresting him, and in consequence thereof he is killed, then $2,000 will be paid to the party killing him. Only one of said rewards will be paid. If Vasquez be necessarily killed, $2,000 will be paid; if arrested and delivered over, $3,000.

CODE COMMENTARIES!

BY CHAS. LINDLEY.

Late Code Commissioner.

Part I of this work is now ready for the profession. It contains:

I.—Investigation and Integration of Legal Systems.

II.—Historic Glance at Codifications.

III.—Practical Codification and Amendment.

IV.—Appendix. Letter to H. H. Haight and others—Future Treatment of the Codes.

Under the first head are briefly treated:—The philosophy of Law; The Science of Law; The Common and Statute Law; Flexibility and History; Fragmentary Expression of the Common Law; Effect of Political and Social

Changes on Legal Systems.

Under the second head, is contained a Historic Glance at codification, including Roman, French, Spanish, Canadian and American. This part presents a clear, terse view of the subject, and brings the reader to the third head, Practical Codification, with much better prepared to appreciate what follows.

Under the third head, Practical Codification, are the following: Axiomatic Propositions; Preparation of the Act authorizing Codification; Requisite Qualification of Commissioners; Compensation; Time for the Performance of the Work; and Rules for Codification. The work has an eight page Appendix, in the form of a letter to H. H. Haight and others, touching the author's connection with the Code Commission and the causes of his regretful, butching after the attention of every lawyer in the State. The author is evidently master of his subject, and has given to it

an unsparring, analytical, demonstrative treatment. The work has come in a most opportunate hour, containing as it does, most important recommendations as to the mode of amending the Codes.

The work will be mailed, post paid, by

Our State University.

The world affords no wider field for an intelligent and scientific farmer than is found in California. The great variety of soil and climate; the wide range of productions; and the necessity of irrigation, call for the exercise of greater intelligence, and a higher degree of knowledge than agriculture usually does in the Eastern States.

The culture of the grape, and its manufacture into wine; the raising of tobacco, silk, cotton, jute, the semi-tropical fruits and nuts, all, to be entirely successful require an acquaintance with the character of our soil, climate and conditions that can only be gained by a thorough, scientific training. To give this training was the avowed object in establishing the State University. How far that object has been attained the people of this State well know. That the just expectations of the industrial classes, those engaged in the mechanical arts, as well as the farmers, have been disappointed is evident to all. By the influence of the Grangers this matter has been brought to the attention of the Legislature. The management of the University is to be investigated, and it is to be hoped that means will be provided by which the original design of the institution will be carried out. We want a college that will furnish to the farmer, the mechanic and the artisan of our State, the training in his own peculiar field, that the professional man receives for his calling.

There are unlimited possibilities existing in our fertile soil, and untold wealth buried in our mountain ranges. The aid of science is demanded that we may realize these grand possibilities. The untrained abilities of our industrial classes have accomplished much, but with the assistance that is their due, they can effect a great deal more. Congress made its magnificent grant in the interest of the toiling millions, and not for the benefit of the few whom wealth had already placed beyond the need of assistance. Let us have a management of the University that will make labor popular. Let the poor but ambitious youth of our State be encouraged to work their way through the University, and let no man be placed in a position connected with it whose influence will not add to the dignity of labor.

The Wool-Growers.

The adjourned meeting of the Wool-Growers' Convention will be held at the Court-house to-day, convening at eleven o'clock. The most important matter that will come before the meeting is the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to draft articles of association. The aim and scope of this association will, however, we take it, form the subject of discussion, and at the risk of repetition we will again urge upon the growers the importance of taking time by the forelock, and in a measure preparing for the changed conditions that are likely to effect the production of wool in the future.

It is essential to the success of our wool interests that a depot for the collection of the product of southern California shall be established. In connection with this should be a scouring and baling establishment. Then our wools could be collected and graded. They could be held here and attract buyers, or through the association, could be shipped to the East. Such an arrangement would enable small farmers to go into the production of wool in connection with their other business. By raising alfalfa any farmer can profitably keep a small band of sheep, and if improved breeds are introduced, it only needs a reliable home market to make the raising of sheep by our small farmers one of the most profitable adjuncts of their business. It will depend largely on the action of this Convention whether these expectations will be realized.

A Suggestion to the Board of Supervisors.

Perhaps it may not be amiss to suggest to our Board of Supervisors that it would be a good thing to establish a county almshouse. A quarter section of land could be procured in some eligible location, and suitable buildings erected for a moderate sum. Then we should have a place of refuge for those in need of assistance, where everyone capable of performing any kind of labor could have a chance to help in earning their living. Properly managed, such an institution would furnish an economical and effectual means of reaching the poor and destitute. It would be in a few years become self-sustaining, and our poor, instead of being a burden to the community, would be able to earn their own living. In view of the fact that the sick and destitute that are constantly applying for aid are from all parts of the Pacific Coast, and many of the Eastern States, we think it probable that the Legislature could be easily prevailed upon to grant assistance in erecting the buildings. Lavish sums have been expended by the State in building asylums at Napa and Stockton, but nothing has been done for Southern California.

We cannot but think that if our Supervisors would take the initiative, they could secure ample assistance, and that in a few years an institution that would be a credit to our county might be built up. Throughout the East the policy of connecting almshouses with a farm whereon the labor of the inmates may be used to advantage has met with universal success, and has everywhere been adopted. Let Los Angeles be the first to put such an institution in working order in this part of the State.

Sound Advice to Grangers.

We give place to the following sensible article, which we clip from a late issue of the California Granger, as being applicable to the present movements of the seventeen Granges of Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties. We commend its careful perusal to our large army of Granger readers:

If the Grangers make a mistake, and fail to accomplish the reforms for which they have set out, it will be in this one thing—in supposing that they can do anything without money. The men who have combined against them are men of means, and of large ideas. They project great schemes, and draw on their purses to carry them out. If millions are required to control legislation, to build canals or railroads, to charter vessels and control the grain market—the millions are forthcoming. Moreover, they do not publish in the papers, nor commit to thoughtless persons, what they intend to do a year in advance. We do not of course approve their methods altogether, especially in the matter of special legislation—the men who have votes, if they stand together, are more than the men who have money. We may, nevertheless, adopt in the Grange some of the suggestions furnished by these men, as men of business.

First, then, let us not dream of effecting any business reform without money. We are not quite sure that we have not been a little spoiled already in this respect. By a fortunate train of circumstances, we saved last year many thousands of dollars, at a cost of less than a few hundred. But this cannot always be, and cannot reasonably be expected. Nor can we hope for reform to be inaugurated by those who have heretofore, and do now control the business of the country to our disadvantage. They have invested their money with a view to making other money, and they prize cash just as we should expect business men to do always in like circumstances, and just as the Grangers must do if they hope to make headway. Resolutions and propositions are so plenty as to be a drug on the market, considerably below par. They amount to nothing. A thousand or two of them do not obstruct the path of a man who has money and is intent on making more. Before the speculators feel much annoyed by the Grangers, the latter will be in the field with money, and will be able to charter ships to purchase grain, to loan money, to build factories, and to do whatever else is needful to be done. Until that time, notwithstanding our resolves and feasible plans, and well-laid complaints, we expect things to go on about the same as usual. Our Executive Committee may meet month after month, and issue advisory and hortatory circulars to no purpose, until a fund is placed at their disposal to be used in seizing upon the opportunities that are passing, and until every subordinate Grange has a fund at the disposal of its trustees. Suppose the committee be composed of responsible men—will they assume the responsibility of transacting business for the Grange, and trust to the action of the Legislature for reimbursement? Or can they use their discretion as business men without knowing beforehand what support they will have? Unless they are supposed to advance their own means, many an opportunity will be allowed to pass. Suppose the heavy machinery of the Grange can be got in motion to grind out the money necessary to avail themselves of it. But the necessity, or at least the convenience, we will suppose admitted.

Now, let the second point to be determined. The subject has been one of serious thought to us, and in the absence of any example parallel to our case, the outline suggested is to some extent original, and is held subject to revision. In the first place, then, we must bear in mind the fact, that the Granges of this State represent an immense capital—based on their estimate on known facts, we should say not less than seventy-five millions ($75,000,000) of dollars, or an average of five hundred thousand ($500,000) dollars each. (This estimate is far too low for we are satisfied, but it is sufficient for our purpose.) Now, let each subordinate Grange establish a fund, call it a bank-fund or a business fund, or what you will—equal to one-twentieth of its assets, that is, following the average $25,000—said fund to be taken as capital stock in shares apportioned among the members of the Grange. This would give an aggregate fund of three millions seven hundred and fifty thousand ($3,750,000) dollars. Now, set apart as a state fund, subject to the control of the Executive Committee as a board of directors—say ten percent—that is, three hundred and seventy-five thousand ($375,000) dollars; the balance to be retained by the several subordinate Granges, to carry out their local schemes of co-operation, to loan individuals, etc. Here we have means quite sufficient to conduct the business of the Granges of this State, made available for buying, selling, loaning, doing anything else that may be done in their interest. The central fund, with its several branches, may be used as banks use their money, each board of trustees being a local board of directors. Money may be drawn at will whenever there is most need of it, and applied as the exigencies of the case may require.

We do not propose in this article to enter more fully into the details of our plan. Suffice it to say, that some such plan, by which the Grangers will be enabled to conduct their business on business principles and on a safe basis, must be adopted, or they must give up the struggle. Talk, talk, talk! We have had enough of it—and yet, are but little better off than in the beginning. To be sure, we have established an agency in San Francisco, and an agency in each subordinate Grange, and these are doing a noble thing for us, in their way. But we need something more. As far as we have gone we are right, but we have not gone far enough. The advice of Horace Greeley to a certain young man, is applicable: "Secure independence first; and then you can do what your inclination suggests." Grangers, you must put up money, MONEY! MONEY! and then you can do what you please. Without it you can do NOTHING.

Fun Ahead.

If the following from the Tufts, Field and Farm is to be relied on, another exciting race is on hand, and the nerve of our champion horse is to be tried again by Eastern stock. That paper says:

"We are in receipt of a letter from Homewood & Johnson, under date of Westfield, N. Y., January 10th, who seem to be considerably riled at the strictures of the California press in noticing their challenge to Thad Stevens. It appears these gentlemen not only mean business but are determined to beat the lion in his den. They say: 'We have no desire to make a reputation for our horse by senseless puffery in a newspaper, neither have we a desire to solicit patronage on the Pacific Slope; we do want to beat Thad Stevens, and calculate to be able to do so. At least we shall make the endeavor, and with this view will start for California with our stable in June next, and we shall show Treat and his newspaper backers that we mean business. We have no wish to disparage the California horse; but it will be recollected that the Chronicle and other local papers were as enthusiastic in their praise one time as they are now of Thad Stevens' and yet he was beaten on a standard by the two Eastern mares, Goldsmith Maid and Lucy. St. James, another Eastern horse, has also beaten the crack trotters of the Pacific Coast; and we furthermore believe that Thad Stevens would have been beaten in his great race by both Trace Blue and Joe Daniels if they had been in proper condition, with anything like a fair show. We are willing to take our chances with George Treat, and will leave for our stables for San Francisco early in June, to try conclusions with him.'"

Particulars Regarding the Death of the Siamese Twins.

A dispatch from Mount Airy, North Carolina, was published in New York on the 25th inst., giving an interesting conversation between a correspondent and Dr. Hollingsworth, who was the first physician to arrive at the residence of the Siamese twins after their death. Dr. Hollingsworth does not believe that Eng's death was caused by any vital connection or artery passing through the ligament connecting the twins. He does not believe in the existence of any vital connections. He has attended them frequently when one has been sick, the other in good health, and often noticed their two pulses beat to be different to the minute. Eng's death was undoubtedly due to the shock and terror inspired by his union with Chang's dead body. An attempt to sever the ligament after Chang's death would only have hastened the death of Eng. The friends maintain that an artery was contained in the ligament, and that after Chang's death the blood from Eng's body flowed into his, but there was no response to the action, and Eng died from exhaustion and loss of blood. Up to the time of Eng's death the ligament was quite warm to the point where it entered Chang's body. The ligament is four inches wide and as thick as a man's wrist, and the one navel of the twins is in the center. Meanwhile the bodies have been temporarily interred.

A late Washington dispatch says: That Senator Jones will not introduce his bill to provide for a Commission to report upon the practicability of irrigating, or filling with water, the basins of the Colorado desert, in Southern California, until the report of the engineer who explored the country near the mouth of the Colorado river is received. This is now expected, as strong influence will be brought to bear to secure the passage of the bill. The expenses of the survey made last summer were paid by Senator Jones, and the expedition was planned by W. S. Mason, of San Francisco.

The Michigan State Grangers, in Convention at Kalamazoo, have adopted a resolution, declaring that railroads are amenable to regulation as much as plank and gravel road companies. The Legislature has as much right to regulate their charges as to fix turnpike tolls or charges of millers for grinding grain. Accompanying this assertion of right is an appeal to the railroad companies to remember that their interests are identical with those of the farmers, and not to kill, by exorbitant prices, the agricultural goose that lays the golden egg.

The managers of the Nevada lottery for the benefit of the Insane Asylum, write that the drawing will come off on March 4th as heretofore announced, the Supreme Court not having inhibited it, but only declared against some other lotteries belonging to another scheme.

In San Francisco last week the deaths were 96 persons, against an average of 71 for corresponding weeks the past six years. The males numbered 63; females, 40; whites, 87; blacks 1; copper-colored, 8. Born in California, 34; in other States, 15; in Ireland, 19; other foreign countries, 25; including 8 Chinese, and the nativity of two decedents was unknown.

A limb fell across the Olema stage in the redwoods, in Marin county, last Thursday, and injured James Stocker, of San Rafael, but not seriously. The top of the stage was completely demolished, and as there were six passengers in it at the time, it seems wonderful that no one was injured.

The Supreme Court of California has denied the application of F. F. Gallardo to have Patrick Reddy deprived of the privilege of practicing as an attorney.

Bunker Hill.

A little over a year more, and the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill will take place. A little band of heroes, then inaugurated a struggle, which brought untold results. It is very fitting that their deeds should be commemorated. The nation at large is very justly arranging for a celebration on an extensive scale, of the centennial anniversary of this event. This will instill patriotic impulse into the souls of those of the coming generations, and prepare them for the struggles, which they, in life, must undergo. Overhanging Los Angeles is a hill similar to Bunker Hill—nay, it is larger. From it all the city can be seen and the country for miles around. On this hill also, are military marks, the remnants of a fort, which was built for the protection of liberty in this State. This hill has an avenue running along its crest, and our friend Jaquith, through whose influence chiefly it has been opened, has very appropriately named it Bunker Hill avenue. The City Surveyor has been ordered to define the grades and lines of Olive, Charity, and Bunker Hill avenue, from Hill to Hope; Second street, and Temple street, from Hill to Hope. Mr. Beaudry being the owner, by perfect and indisputable title, offers the following scheme, believing that it supplies a felt want.

His various tracts have been surveyed, and platted in lots of convenient size for residences, upwards of two hundred in number, and the maps, together with abstracts of title, are kept for public inspection at his office, opposite the Pico House.

Any person desiring to purchase can inspect the land, select his lot or lots, and acquire the same, if not previously taken up by another, upon the following terms: Purchasers not being restricted to a single lot.

The purchaser or his successor to pay the fixed price of the lands selected by him, in equal monthly installments, as follows: On lots valued at $400 and upwards, but not to exceed $300, $15 per month; on those valued at $300 and upwards, and less than $400, $10 per month. Payments in gold or currency, and no interest demanded. For cash in hand a reduction of fifteen per cent will be made.

The purchaser to have immediate possession upon payment of the first installment and on execution and delivery of contract.

The right of the purchasers may be assignable by him, and his assigns, to succeed to all his privileges and liabilities; standing in all respects towards the vendors as original obligors.

Purchasers shall not be restricted to the payment of the installments as above shown, but may make payments in advance, and on all such payments he will allow one per cent. per month, from the date of payment until said payment would become due.

Upon selection of a lot or lots by a purchaser, and payment of the first installment with five dollars, in U. S. gold coin, an expense on the document, Mr. Beaudry with the purchaser, will execute and acknowledge a sealed agreement, embodying the above conditions; and, upon full payment, according thereto, the undersigned will execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance of the tract or tracts, in form of warranty against grantor, the grantee paying the cost of such deed.

These proposals will be kept open until the 12th day of February, 1874. The location is very desirable. All that has heretofore been lacking is water, and that want is now fulfilled. Anywhere else, in as desirable location, lots readily command from $500 to $1,000, and even higher rates. This property is put at the astonishing low price of from $300 to $400. But this is not all. This may be paid in currency and a reduction of fifteen per cent will be made for cash in hand.

Assemblyman Higbie has been appointed a member of the Joint Committee to whom was referred the subject of suffrage.

The Weekly Rescue, of Sacramento, the Good Templar organ, has been made the organ of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the Department of California.

Quite a number of our most influential citizens met at Temple's Bank last evening, and took action, that we are confident will result in the speedy erection of the much talked-of new Gas Works.

The Library Trustees met last night to consider the bill to be presented to the Legislature, authorizing the levying of a tax for library purposes. As their labors were not concluded, we are unable to make any report, but will give the bill as agreed on, in full, in to-morrow's issue.

The Library Trustees, last night, carefully considered and agreed upon a draft of the bill to be laid before the Legislature, and the committee to be engaged and printed. We will publish the Act as soon as we are supplied with a copy.

The stockholders of the Agricultural and Mechanical Exposition of Southern California will hold a meeting at the office of Lindley & Thompson, in Temple block, on Monday next at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of adopting by-laws for the government of the company.

This is a good week for amusement. Last night one could have the choice of three, viz: The Minstrel company at the theatre, the humorous entertainment at the M. E. Church, and the skating rink. The latter is the playground of the skaters are often very amusing.

Lovely moonlight nights these. Last night our midnight wanderer met no less than half a dozen young couples quietly and lovingly promenading our streets, and proudly passing judgment on the newly constructed cross-walks, which are becoming such a peculiar feature of our city.

Capt. Geo. A. Armstrong, the music dealer, will open a singing school in his photograph and music rooms, on Saturday evening next. He informs us that rehearsals of the "Flower Queen" will be begun in a week or so, and be held at the M. E. Church on alternate days of the week, until the concert is given.

Messrs. Cobble & Shaw, the new firm that has lately taken charge of the Soap Works in this city, placed on our table yesterday a sample of the soap their works are turning out. As far as we are capable of judging it is a very superior article, and will fully meet the wants of the trade.

The regular monthly meeting of the District Council of the Patrons of Husbandry, for the counties of Los Angeles and San Bernardino, will meet at Gallatin, on Tuesday, February 10, at 10 o'clock. It will be the most important meeting of the kind ever held in Southern California in consequence of the important business to come before the Council.

The Florence people intended to flood their country this winter from the surplus waters of the Los Angeles river, to be conducted thither through ditches already dug. The river has given them the slip, however, by shifting its channel to the eastern side of the valley entirely beyond their reach. The rain has been sufficient, however, this season to insure good crops throughout the valley.

E. Chamberlain, Esq., the correspondent of the Chicago Times, in his series of letters on the Pacific Coast, promises to write up the various resorts in this State, as they actually exist, without resorting to cheap puffery. While we have no fears of Los Angeles, we should hate to wear his clothes, and be found in some of the localities, that he has visited after a copy of the Times reaches them.

Lovely moonlight nights these. Last night our midnight wanderer met no less than half a dozen young couples quietly and lovingly promenading our streets, and proudly passing judgment on the newly constructed cross-walks, which are becoming such a peculiar feature of our city.

Capt. Geo. A. Armstrong, the music dealer, will open a singing school in his photograph and music rooms, on Saturday evening next. He informs us that rehearsals of the "Flower Queen" will be begun in a week or so, and be held at the M. E. Church on alternate days of the week, until the concert is given.

Messrs. Cobble & Shaw, the new firm that has lately taken charge of the Soap Works in this city, placed on our table yesterday a sample of the soap their works are turning out. As far as we are capable of judging it is a very superior article, and will fully meet the wants of the trade.

The regular monthly meeting of the District Council of the Patrons of Husbandry, for the counties of Los Angeles and San Bernardino, will meet at Gallatin, on Tuesday, February 10, at 10 o'clock. It will be the most important meeting of the kind ever held in Southern California in consequence of the important business to come before the Council.

The Florence people intended to flood their country this winter from the surplus waters of the Los Angeles river, to be conducted thither through ditches already dug. The river has given them the slip, however, by shifting its channel to the eastern side of the valley entirely beyond their reach. The rain has been sufficient, however, this season to insure good crops throughout the valley.

E. Chamberlain, Esq., the correspondent of the Chicago Times, in his series of letters on the Pacific Coast, promises to write up the various resorts in this State, as they actually exist, without resorting to cheap puffery. While we have no fears of Los Angeles, we should hate to wear his clothes, and be found in some of the localities, that he has visited after a copy of the Times reaches them.

surpassed—sewing the thinnest material and the heaviest goods with equal facility, and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thicknesses of material.
The HOWE MACHINES are the STRONG-EST and SIMPLEST, and seldom or never give any trouble in operating. They are the oldest established in the world (Mr. Howe being the original inventor), and are in ad-

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIAN,
RICHARD MELROSE, Proprietor.
Anaheim, Los Angeles Co., California.

THE CALIFORNIAN is a Weekly Newspaper, just entering the fourth year of its existence, and has the largest circulation of any weekly published in the country. Under the management of the present proprietor its columns have been devoted to the advancement of the agricultural interests of Southern California, and it is now recognized as the representative newspaper of the Farmer.
The CALIFORNIAN is independent in politics. Upon all subjects, however, in which the interests of the people are involved, its editorial columns will advocate the cause of the People against Monopolies, either Political or Commercial. Closely identified with the Grange movement in this State, it aspires to become an exponent of the principles upheld by the Patrons of Husbandry, and therefore asks of the Grangers of Southern California their assistance and support.
The aim of the CALIFORNIAN will also be
to give to its readers an epitome of the latest news items of the week, both foreign and domestic. No trouble or expense will be spared to make it, in this respect, equal to any weekly newspaper in Southern California. It will also contain a full report of the local news
of the day, and a careful and thorough review
of the Local and Foreign Markets.

Prospectus for 1874. Seventh Year.
THE ALDINE,
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.
NOT FOR SALE IN NEWS OR BOOK STORES.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timid character of ordinary periodicals.
It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its readers, the real value and beauty of The Al-dine will be most appreciated after it has been consulted at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness,
as compared with rivals of similar class, The Aldine is a unique and original enterprise, unlike and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possession of a complete volume cannot equate the quantity of the paper and engravings in any other shape or similar volume. It is ten times its cost; and then, there are chronos, besides!

Art Department, 1874.
The illustrations of The Aldine have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art-circles of Europe it is admitted that its woodcuts
are examples of the highest production ever attained. The committee of judges in favor of "steel-plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production.
The wood cuts of The Aldine possess all the delicacy and character of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better re-rendering of the artist's original.

Totally revised the wonderful work which
The Aldine is doing for the cause of art in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other de-representation of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, the Aldine will present
examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to The Aldine will, at a trifling cost, enjoy the advantages of the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thomas Moran, N. Y. Secpt. 20th, 1873.
The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our artists, and will be a most attractive
any of its predecessors.

Premium for 1874.
Every subscriber to The Aldine for the year
1874 will receive a pair of chronos. The original pictures were purchased by the publication of The Aldine, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by a congress for ten thousand dollars. The other pictures were chosen to represent "The East" and
"The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, the other represents the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenery themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chronos are each of the finest thirty distinct plates, and are in size 12x16
and appearance exact facsimiles of the originals. The presentation of these examples of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of The Aldine was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its success for development is attested by the following testimonial
from the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

Nov. 28, N. Y. Secpt. 20th, 1873.
Messrs. James Sutton & Co., GENTLEMEN: I am delighted with the proceedings of your chronos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of nature's productions.
Very respectfully, THOMAS MORAN.

The chronos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process,
with material of American manufacture,
from designs of American scenery, by an American artist, and are sold singly or delivered in the first successful American Art Journal. It is no better because of this, but it certainly possesses an interest in foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of the peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chronos that are sold singly or delivered in the subscription price of The Aldine. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they cost, but for cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

Many subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longing of his heart.

Terms.
$5 per annum, in advance, with all chronos free. For 50 Cents Extra, the chronos will be sent, unframed, varnished, and prepared by mail.
The Aldine will, hereafter be obtainable
only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates. Subscribers must be sent to the publisher direct, or to the local cavanser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certicate is given, bearing the facsimile signature
of James Sutton & Co.

Cavanser Wanted.
Any person wishing to act permanently as a local cavanser will receive full and prompt information by applying to

Devoted to the Interests of Southern California.
J. A. JOHNSON, Editor and Proprietor.

AS THE CHARMING CHARAC- ter of Southern California, and more especially that most favored section called Santa Barbara, becomes known to the world,
it is not surprising that a widespread and growing interest in the region should be awakened. It is the constant aim of this Press to furnish perfectly reliable information on all points of interest to the country, the student,
and home-seekers, which we are now able to do with greatly increased facilities.

While the PRESS seeks to promote the prosperity of all Southern California by all igitimate and honorable methods, it is more directly interested in the growth and coming greatness of Santa Barbara. The unequalled beauty of the situation, its climate, the healthfulness, the beauty of the scenery, the wonderous variety and fertility of the soil, in almost unlimited range of production, and flourish there without irrigation, will be known from time to time by facts which cannot be controverted in the columns of the PRESS. Any intelligent person can become familiar with this part of the State by reading
the PRESS for a year.
